The Anambra State Investment Promotion and Protection Agency (“ANSIPPA” or the “Agency”) is a government agency mandated by the Anambra State Government (the “State”) to manage and oversee its investments while partnering with other stakeholders including private investors and authorities to execute key infrastructure projects in the State. The Anambra State Government, through its Four Point Development Agenda, has set ambitious goals designed to diversify and grow its economy through massive investment in infrastructural projects in partnership with the private sector. The Agency is particularly keen to realize the development of the State’s infrastructure base in liaison with other agencies of government and the private sector.
