The International Rescue Committee (IRC) responds to the world's worst humanitarian crises, helping people to survive, recover, and rebuild their lives. The IRC began operations in Nigeria in 2012, initially responding to severe flooding in Kogi State. As humanitarian needs escalated in the Northeast, IRC expanded to Borno, Adamawa, and Yobe States, later growing into the Northwest, including Zamfara, Katsina, and most recently Sokoto and Plateau States. Across these regions, the IRC implements integrated, multi-sectoral programs focused on health, nutrition, WASH,
