REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL FROM INDIGENOUS IMPLEMENTING ORGANIZATIONS IN EBONYI AND KANO STATES TO PARTNER WITH THE USG-FUNDED MOMENTUM COUNTRY AND GLOBAL LEADERSHIP PROJECT

JHPIEGO, an affiliate of Johns Hopkins University, builds global and local partnerships to enhance the quality of healthcare services for women and families around the world. Jhpiego is a global leader in creating innovative and effective approaches to deliver transformative health care solutions that save lives. Through the USG funded-Momentum Country and Global Leadership (MCGL) led by Jhpiego, which aims to reduce childhood malnutrition and improve maternal, infant, and young child nutrition (MIYCN) outcomes in Nigeria, Jhpiego is seeking to engage the services of indigenous implementing organizations to lead community-based efforts on nutrition. The partner will lead community-based efforts in identifying, screening and treating children with Severe Acute Malnutrition (SAM), intensifying SAM treatment through provision of Ready-to-Use Therapeutic Food (RUTF) using outreach and home-visit delivery approaches, promoting preventive nutrition practices among pregnant and lactating women, newborns, infants, and children by strengthening maternal infant young child nutrition (MIYCN) and acute malnutrition services and best practices and strengthen the referral pathways from
