

PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTARY VIDEOS - NIGERIA

Project

Nigeria SCALE is a USAID-funded 5-year project implemented by PALLADIUM in collaboration with local resource partners. The goal of the Nigeria SCALE project is to strengthen the financial, management and advocacy capacity of local civil society organizations (CSOs) and Business Membership Organizations (BMOs) in Nigeria to create a more accountable, transparent, peaceful, and democratic Nigeria with more effective and efficient public service delivery. The project is designed to enhance local civil society organizations' ability to be positive and responsible change agents in Nigeria. The project has five main components: 1) Component One - Improve CSO organizational capacity, 2) Component Two - Enhance capacity for CSO advocacy, collaboration and management, 3) Component Three - Improve the policy and regulatory environment for civil society, 4) Component Four - Countering Trafficking in Persons (CTIP), and 5) component Five - Sector strengthening and advocacy.
