OVERVIEW

Project title: Strengthening Women's Economic Empowerment (SWEEP)

Summary of project: Strengthening Women's Economic Empowerment Project (SWEEP) is a 3-year program that started in 2022 and implements activities in selected mosques and churches in South West Nigeria (Oyo, Osun, and Ogun states). The project is using the Transforming Masculinities Model to assess the impact and effectiveness of Tearfund's Transforming Masculinities intervention (TM) on addressing the root causes sexual and gender based violence especially intimate partner violence. The project uses an interfaith approach to transform masculinity, aiming at ending Sexual and Gender Based Violence, leading to improved family well-being and greater economic empowerment for the women including promoting social cohesion along with its standard focus on reducing gender-based violence. The implementation approach has been to collaborate and coordinate with relevant stakeholders, especially the relevant government MDAs, law enforcement agencies and CSOs in the focal states to establish systems for addressing Sexual and gender based violence.

Location and region: South West Nigeria Nigeria - Oyo, Osun and Ogun states.
