EKITI STATE ADOLESCENT GIRLS’ INITIATIVE FOR LEARNING AND EMPOWERMENT (AGILE)

REQUEST FOR EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST (REOI) FOR CONSULTANCY SERVICES FOR MONITORING AND EVALUATION OF AGILE PROJECT IN EKITI STATE

REFERENCE NO. NG-EKITISTATE-428841-CS-COS CREDIT NO.: 67380-NG

ISSUE DATE: 24 MAY, 2024

The Federal Government has received a credit from the World Bank’s International Development Association (IDA), for the implementation of the AGILE Project in selected Eighteen (18) States of the Federation. AGILE Project seeks to improve adolescent girls’ access to secondary education opportunities through a holistic and multi-sectoral approach to unlock binding demand and supply side constraints to girls’ empowerment in 18 states of Nigeria. The project will use secondary schools as a platform to empower girls through education, life skills, health education, GBV awareness and prevention negotiation skills, self-agency and digital literacy skills. It is a project that will work with the Federal Government and support the participating states to improve secondary education opportunities among girls, and to achieve its objectives through targeted assistance following key project principles.
